1. Call to Order

Linda Aristondo called the meeting to order at 6:34pm and reminded everyone in attendance to sign up for public comments if they wished to speak.

2. Adoption of Agenda

Linda Aristondo made a motion to adopt the February 2019 Agenda. Sara Bloom seconded and the motion carried unanimously.

3. Approval of Minutes

Linda Aristondo made a motion to approve the January 2019 Minutes. Scott Wickham seconded and the motion carried unanimously.

4. Leadership Update:

The board was updated to the following:

- The school has hired a new physical education teacher following the departure of Mr. Henry. The school is looking for a full time math/science teacher for the 6th grade class. All other positions have been filled.
- State exam readiness continues with practice tests being administered regularly. Parents/Guardians have been enlisted to help students with practice sections. Scheduled info-sessions/forums have and continue to take place to answer any questions.
- Practice test results will be sent out to the parents/guardians in the coming weeks.
- The “We are in Attendance” initiative is off to a great start. Classes with over 95% attendance rate in a month are rewarded with a party (the first class which has accomplished this for January, Yerushalayim, picked popcorn and a movie). Students with over 95% on- time attendance receive a certificate.
- Health classes for the 5th and 6th grade classes are focusing on puberty, hygiene and gender roles.
- The Service learning curriculum is focusing on Leukemia and Lymphoma with the school partnering with the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society to spread awareness and raise funds to help those suffering with those illnesses.
- SPED collaboration with Hebrew instruction is being implemented to foster greater involvement between those departments.
- Families on the waitlist are being called back to fill any available seats in the school.
- New enrollment protocols are being implemented to help new students acclimate to the school.
- This coming Friday, February 15th there will be a dance showcase with all the grades performing as well as the inaugural performance of the school’s Hebrew Choir.

- March 1st is Harlem Day at the school and will be commemorated with presentations about notable Harlem residents and honor late founding board member, Celia Wickham.
- The Head of School search is on schedule. After applications and phone interviews, 8 applicants have already been interviewed by the HOS search committee. The next 4 candidates will be interviewed on February 27th. There are currently 47 applicants. The board will continue to be updated as the search progresses.

5. PTO Report

The board was briefed on the following:

- The latest PTO meeting took place last week.
- Family Fun Day for grades K-2 took place last Saturday featuring a magician. It was a huge success with an estimated 50 families in attendance.
- Grades 3-6 Family Fun Day will take place in March with a Spiderman theme.
- The PTO will host a meeting on March 14 with a Harlem Parent/Guardian who specializes in anger management and life coaching to help families work through issues and get any needed support.
- The PTO Family Feedback Committee is working with HP to help select parents to serve on the HOS search committee in helping to evaluate the finalists for the position.

6. Public Comments

I Harlem Hebrew Community Member spoke about her happiness in the improvement of anti-bullying and asked about opening the front doors earlier in the morning when there is cold weather.

I Harlem Hebrew Community Member asked about protocols regarding older and younger students entering and leaving the school at different times to prevent injury.

7. Staff Comments
